

All the Saints in Faith Are Praying

1. All the saints in faith are pray-ing, "Come, Lord Je - sus, 2. Christ is but a mo - ment leav-ing to pre - pare our ♦ 3. Tho' we wait, we must be read - y, for the Day is 4. All our sor - rows will be end-ing, all our trials and 5. Then the skies will tear a - sun - der and the trump will come a - gain!" Has - ten on, no more de - lay - ing, heav'n - ly home; thus He bids us stop our griev - ing ♦ draw - ing near. We must watch - ful be, and stead - y, troub - les done, when Je - ru - sa - lem, de - scend-ing, loud - ly sound. Then the world, in watch - ing won - der, bring us to a per - fect end. We are yearn - ing, as He makes this pro - mise known: Man - y man - sions, ♦ filled with hope and ho - ly fear. Come, Lord Je - sus!

 makes the heav'ns and earth as one— then the tri - umph, will be - hold the Christ come down. Then all glo - ry, we are yearn - ing to de - clare the last "A - men!"

 man - y man - sions soon will be our ver - y own.
 ♦ Come, Lord Je - sus! Speed the day when You ap - pear! then the tri - umph! Come, now quick - ly, con - quering Son!
 then all glo - ry will be - come the Sav - ior's crown.
