

I Nothing Add, I Nothing Take

1. I noth - ing add, I noth - ing take from Christ, the per - fect One.
2. Might I earn Heav'n by my own hand through works that I have done?
3. Could I find faith in world - ly thought or in some se - crets known?
4. Would all my worth - less blood be spilt it still could not a - tone
5. So may this ev - er be my claim when found be - fore the Throne,

Al - ways and on - ly I will make my an - them "Christ a - lone!"
No! I could nev - er hope to stand out - side of Christ a - lone.
I blush to think I could be taught ex - cept by Christ a - lone.
for all my sin, for all my guilt— that must be Christ a - lone!
that my sal - va - tion's in the name of Je - sus Christ a - lone.

Jonathan Landry Cruse, 2015

EVAN C.M.
William Havergal, 1846