

More Than Conquerors

1. All hail the might - y Con - queror, Christ Je - sus, our great King!
2. Yet how can we in - her - it this ti - tle "con - queror" too?
3. But ris - ing up vic - to - rious He con - quered death and sin,
4. "You can - not be de - feat - ed by tri - als in this life.
5. Now since our God is for us, what have we then to fear?

All hail the glo - rious War - rior, to Whom our praise we bring.
We have not earned the mer - it or fame that is His due.
and reigns in Heav - en glo - rious, each con - flict set to win.
The con - quest is com - plet - ed o'er Sa - tan, sin, and strife.
Though en - e - mies de - plore us, we face them all with cheer.

May He be giv - en hon - ors by all His ran - somed host:
For we have on - ly failed Him by eve - ry sin and doubt;
To those of His own choos - ing He shares the vic - to - ry;
No pain, no trib - u - la - tion, no dan - ger, fam - ine, sword,
For we will be tri - um - phant: each foe will be trod down we, too, are more than con - querors who make His name our boast.

in - deed, we cruel - ly nailed Him and cast the Con - queror out.
says, "Though you once were los - ing, come con - quer now through me."
no - noth - ing in cre - a - tion can con - quer those in God."
be - neath the Christ ex - ult - ant, Who shares the Con - queror's crown.
