

The Glorious Exchange

1. I bless the Christ Who came from Heav'n
2. I bless the Christ Who took my sin,
3. I bless the Christ Who pleads my cause
4. I bless the Christ Who guar - an - tees
5. Yet bless - ings from a thou - sand tongues to wear my hu - man frame, my par - don ful - ly paid,

be - fore His Fa - ther's throne;
a fu - ture heav'n - ly bliss;
are still a gift too small.

to know my eve - ry earth - ly grief,
then gave to me His right - eous - ness—
Who makes my need His dai - ly prayer, though once He shared in my es - tate,
I can— I must— give o'er to Him and own my worth - less name.

an un - de - serv - ed trade!
and makes my care His own.
soon I will share in His.
my heart, my life, my all.
