

The Road to Heaven

1. The road to Heav'n is sore-ly marked with earth-ly grief and pain.
2. "But no!" the Sav-ior says to me, "Each trou-ble here is giv'n
3. The ef-fort would have been too much and I would not have come,
4. For now I see each earth-ly grief has served to teach me this:
5. So as I walk this wea-ry road I look to Par-a-dise,

Here trials and trag-e-dy are parked to block my up-ward gain.
from my own hand and serves to be a high-er step to Heav'n."
save for the Spir-it's guid-ing touch, which spurs my steps toward Home.
in Heav'n is found my soul's re-lief, in Christ my on-ly bliss.
where Christ will take my heav-y load and wipe my weep-ing eyes.

Jonathan Landry Cruse, 2015

ROCKY MOUNT C.M.
Jared M. Salyards, 2018

Copyright © 2018 by Jonathan Landry Cruse and Jared M. Salyards. All rights reserved.