

What Once Was Veiled

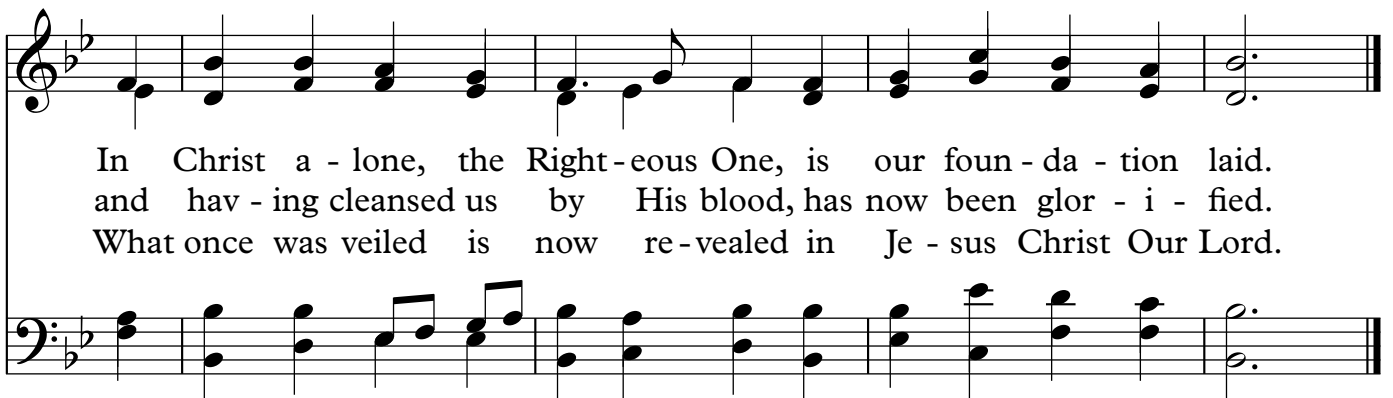

1. All praise and glo - ry be to God for giv - ing us His Word.
2. He is the source of Heav - en's light, yet in our world has shone.
3. To Christ, that Name a - bove all names, to Him we glad - ly sing.

What once was veiled is now re - vealed in Je - sus Christ our Lord.
He is true God by eve - ry right, yet made our frame His own.
En - throned on high, He rules and reigns—Our Proph - et, Priest, and King!

For God has spo - ken by His Son, through whom all things were made.
He took our guilt, our sin, our shame, for these He bled and died,
All praise and glo - ry be to God for giv - ing us His Word.

In Christ a - lone, the Right - eous One, is our foun - da - tion laid.
and hav - ing cleansed us by His blood, has now been glor - i - fied.
What once was veiled is now re - vealed in Je - sus Christ Our Lord.
